

Mary Snitch has been employed at Lockheed Martin Corporation in Bethesda, MD since 1990. She manages LM's portfolio for university and industry relations, and is responsible for fostering and advancing strategic interfaces with leading US research universities. Prior to joining Lockheed Martin, Mary's career path included the Jet Propulsion Laboratory/CalTech 1985-90 as Manager, International and Legislative Affairs, TRW's Washington, DC Office 1983-85, and the US Department of State 1976-1985. Mary is a 19-year member of ARCS Foundation, and Past National President. She serves on the Board of Directors for the American Institute for Aeronautics and Astronautics and the Ron Brown Foundation, and is a member of the International Academy of Astronautics and the International Astronautical Federation. Mary received a B.S./ Business Administration at George Mason University, and MBA in Business, Economics and Public Policy at George Washington University.